

Achieve Results!

Become a Data-Driven Decision-Maker

AASB Board Development Director LuAnn Bird explains how you can use data to improve student achievement.

This introduction to data-driven decision-making is the first step toward experiencing measurable improvements in your schools.

If you're afraid fewer resources will stall student progress, this is a session you can't afford to miss.

AASB's Sept. 14-Oct. 5 District Meetings will equip you with the right questions to ask and actions to take, so you can...

- Understand and target your students' learning needs for the greatest impact.
- Take action with confidence by aligning actions with achievable, yet challenging goals.
- Use data to make timely, appropriate and measurable data-driven decisions.

Boost achievement in your system. Become a data-driven decision-maker!
