Only $40 per person or $150 per group

JoCLAUDIA Moore

Education law expert and attorney JoClaudia Moore of Balch & Bingham LLP answers the tough, pertinent questions for participants in the Alabama Association of School Boards' April 28 teleconference/webinar. Call in and log in to learn What Every Education Leader & Administrator

Should Know About Sexual Harassment.

Not sure if your board of education has the proper policies and procedures in place? Don't know if your administrators and staff are aware of the legal definition and implications of sexual harassment? Do you know what preventative measures to take or how to respond to allegations? Join AASB for this important session and learn the answers to these questions and more.

WHO SHOULD attend?

Everyone with a stake in this issue — whether a school board member interested in policy, superintendent inquiring about procedure, attorney advising school boards, or a school administrator not sure how to address harassment complaints.

- School board members (earn 1.5 Academy hours)
- Superintendents
- School board attorneys
- School administrators

COST-CONSCIOUS technology

Because AASB strives to provide high-quality training at low costs, the 2010 Sexual Harassment Workshop is a conference call you can make from your desk, coupled with an online presentation that you can view from your computer. No travel involved!

The registration fee is only $40 per individual caller and $150 per group call (using one phone line and computer.) The contact who registers a group should provide a list of ALL group participants along with their titles, including school board members, to AASB by close of business on April 29. E-mail the list to dhendricks@AlabamaSchoolBoards.org.

The price includes an access code to call in and link to view the presentation online.

Visit www.AlabamaSchoolBoards.org to register and reserve your access code. Register at least 48 hours prior to the webinar in order to receive the confirmation e-mail that includes your access code.
