Post-Conference Talk & Tour

Oct. 7 | Noon - 3 p.m.

Join us for a tour of the Equal Justice Initiative's Legacy Museum and National Memorial for Peace & Justice, recently named Alabama Tourism's 2019 Attraction of the Year. Listen as EJI staff explain connections between the history of injustice and current challenges such as the school-to-prison pipeline facing the nation's public schools. Lunch is included.

Registration is required.

Patrick Briggs
@pbriggs728
Northeast States
Director, AVID

Patrick Briggs is a thought-provoking speaker who will encourage you to examine your mindsets and practices as you consider if "all means all" when serving students.

Randy Wilkes
@RWilkesleader
Superintendent,
Phenix City Schools

Since arriving at Phenix City Schools in 2014, Randy Wilkes has helped boost the system to statewide esteem, improving achievement and raising the graduation rate.

Phil Gore
@RainierGore
Texas Association of School Boards

Student achievement is the ultimate measure for educational value. But what is the school board's role in improving achievement?

Dr. Jim Mahoney
Executive in Residence,
Ohio University,
Voinovich School

How can we dare to make education about learning, not tests; about improvement, not judgement; and about relevance, not limits?
