Training for Excellent School Board Leaders

Providing school board leaders with quality training is a key tenet of the Alabama Association of School Boards' mission statement. AASB's award-winning "school for school board members" offers coursework throughout the year in face-to-face sessions and 24 hours a day through our School Board U online leadership development portal.

AASB's training year begins July 1 and ends June 30. In addition to our four major conferences and two new board member orientation sessions each year, our staff brings training directly to school boards across the state. All year long, expert trainers hit the road to conduct whole board training workshops or customized sessions. The training can be for an individual school board or for clusters of school boards located in the same region. AASB also offers training during annual meetings in each of its nine districts. The goal is to provide high-level, research-based training in an economical and convenient way.

Improve your skills via 46 interactive courses created to meet boards' needs. The state requires 2 hours of whole board training per year for board-superintendent teams, but more importantly, research says school boards are more effective when all members of a school board learn together as a team.

THE SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER ACADEMY

AASB's "school" for school board members provides ongoing training on important education, legal and governance issues. School board members are automatically enrolled in the School Board Member Academy and notified of face-to-face and online leadership development opportunities.

To earn the various Academy awards, school board members attend AASB conferences worth a specified number of training "hours" and participate in core curriculum courses, striving for four achievement levels. Upon completing the Academy, school board members who continue to develop their boardsmanship skills annually can attain the distinction of Master School Board Member and ultimately have their names added to the Master Honor Roll. Awards are based on hours earned each Academy year, which begins July 1 and ends June 30.

ACADEMY ACHIEVEMENT LEVELS

SPECIAL DESIGNATIONS

Earns Master status for five consecutive years and participates in one Poverty Simulation and one Advocacy Day experience by fifth year. Receives a gold name badge and a Master Honor Roll plate for the Master plaque.

AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

AASB oversees a variety of awards and recognition programs for school board members. These programs include both group and individual awards and a special statewide recognition month. Learn more below about how these distinguished honors are recognized.

MASTER SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER

Recognizes board members who have completed all four levels of the AASB School Board Member Academy and continue their training from year to year. Their accomplishment is recognized at AASB's Annual Convention in December.

MASTER HONOR ROLL

Recognizes board members who have earned Master School Board Member status five consecutive years. These members are honored during AASB's Annual Convention in December.

TEAM TRAINING ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Formerly known as the President's Award, the Team Training Achievement Award recognizes school boards that have had 60 percent or more of their members attend at least three AASB conferences in an academy year and, in that same year, have had all members of their boards meet state-mandated training requirements. The award is presented at AASB's Fall District Meetings.

ALL-STATE SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER AWARD

AASB's highest honor, the All-State School Board Member Award commends up to five past or present school board members across the state who have exhibited exemplary boardmanship. Nominations are accepted in the early fall, and winners are announced during a special awards luncheon at AASB's Annual Convention in December.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER RECOGNITION MONTH

School board members devote countless hours to help provide an excellent education for every child and to give citizens a voice in education decision making. To acknowledge boards' hard work, Alabama celebrates School Board Member Recognition Month each January, honoring local board members with thank-you letters, certificates and events for their commitment to Alabama's schoolchildren.

WHAT THE LAW REQUIRES

Alabama’s School Board Governance Improvement Act requires school board member training and new board member orientation. AASB offers a “school for school board members” through its School Board Member Academy. Each academy training year runs July 1-June 30.

Deadlines for State-Mandated Orientation	Roles & Responsibilities Orientation (R&R)	Effective Boards & Relationships Orientation (EB&R)
All newly seated board members	✓ Must take within one year of the July 1 after taking office	✓ Must take within one year of the July 1 after taking office
Annual Training Requirements	2 Hours of Eligible Whole Board Training	4 Hours of Eligible Training * may include individual and/or group training hours
All board members	✓ Must take	✓ Must take

The 2021-2022 training year ends June 30, 2022. State law requires annually 6 hours of total training (includes 2 whole board training hours for all board members). The law also requires orientation courses for new school board members. AASB’s two-part orientation fulfills the state’s orientation requirement as well as the state ethics course requirement for public officials. Orientation hours count toward fulfilling 4 hours of the state’s 6-hour annual training requirement. Online orientation and other courses are available at AlabamaSchoolBoards.org/SchoolBoardU.
